Descendants of Amanuel Carl Edwards

1. Amanuel Carl (A.C.)¹ Edwards, born 7 Mar 1830, in Newton, Catawba County, NC or Lincoln County, NC (?), died 21 May 1914, in Leicester (Asheville), Buncombe County, NC. Cause of death: Cancer. He married Nancy Mathis 11 Jul 1852, in Spartanburg County, SC. Nancy Mathis was born 26 Jul 1830, in Spartanburg County, SC, died 24 Apr 1896, in Leicester (Asheville), Buncombe County, NC.

The earliest known Edwards ancestor emigrated from Wales to America in 1610 as an indentured servant. He promised to work seven years and would then receive a mule and some acreage. He settled in Jamestown, Virginia. Amanuel Edwards was a foreman for a railroad in Spartanburg, SC, until the railroad went broke. He and his family moved to Buncombe County near Leicester, NC, on 28 February 1870, where he was a farmer and stone mason(?). He joined the New Found Baptist Church by letter on the third Sunday of March 1870 and later was ordained to the ministry by this church. A.C. Edwards enlisted in the army on 26 October 1861 and served in Company 33 of the Palmetta Battalion SC Light Artillery during the Civil War. He had a lower arm removed at the wrist because of cancer at the age of 75, after which he lived for approximately 10 years. Amanuel could not be found in the 1850 census. In the 1860 census, Manuel, wife Nancy, and children were living in Spartanburg, SC. He was a rock mason with a value of personal estate worth $250. It says that he was born in South Carolina. Emanuel Edwards and wife Nannie, both 40 years old, are listed in the 1870 census as living in Leicester, Buncombe County, NC. He was listed as a farmer. Their children at that time are listed with correct birthdates for them to be A.C. and Nancy. The youngest, Martin, who was 1 year old, was born in South Carolina, so the family must have moved to North Carolina during the previous year. In the 1880 census A.C. and family were living in Leicester, Buncombe County, NC. He was a minister farmer. In the 1900 census, Nancy had died and Emanuel was living in Leicester as a farmer. It says that he was born in NC, but both parents were born in South Carolina. He had not been employed for two months and owned his farm free of a mortgage. He was living with Franklin Swaim, his grandson, born in August 1879, who was 20 years old and a farm laborer. He attended 3 months of school. In 1910 Emmanuel was living with his daughter Laura and son-in-law, Noah H. Waldrop, and family. Both A.C. and Nancy are buried at Brick Church Cemetery, New Leicester Highway, just past Green Valley Road, Leicester, NC.

[As told by Wilma Edwards Loga and Esther Ferguson Knutson]: Jennie's ancestors, who were Huguenots, emigrated to America from France, probably in the late 1700s or early 1880s. They settled in what is now Atlantic City, which they found to be unsuitable for farming, so they moved inland. Jennie was the ninth of twelve children born to John Painter and Frances Ireland. At an unknown time some of them moved to Mount Carmel, Illinois. Jennie married Alfred Durley and they had one son, Amon, born in 1888. After Alfred died in 1891 Jennie moved to Cowling, Illinois, where she met and married Lee Edwards. They ran a general store and Jennie was a seamstress. Reuben Francis Herrman was born 6 Dec 1900, in Fosterburg, Madison County IL, died 28 Jun 1974, in Philip, Haakon County, SD.

Reuben was born at home, which was near Fosterburg, IL. When he was two years old his parents went to the world's fair in St. Louis and left Wesley and him behind with Mrs Ramus. The other children went to the fair. He remembered getting into the chicken house when he was 4-6 years old and getting covered with chicken lice. On the trip to SD in 1907, the family went from Alton, IL to Chicago on CB&C and then west. Reuben remembered his mother telling him that some other folks were going to South Dakota and that their name was Edwards. Raymond Edwards had broken an arm when he had gotten between two cars. He remembered Leona Edwards singing. They stopped at Brookings to visit his Uncle Ben and Aunt Kate over the week-end. They arrived in Philip on 14 October 1907 on the train.

Wesley and Reuben walked up town from the train. There were a few buildings and wooden sidewalks. They saw their father (John) visiting with someone. He was surprised to see them because he was expecting them to arrive later in the day. They started out by team and wagon that John had borrowed and camped between the Grindstone Buttes that night. They went the rest of the way to the homestead the next day. The claim shack was 14' X 24'. Reuben remembered the roof leaking when it rained all day; pots and pans were everywhere. They moved the beds out from under the drips and stayed in bed all day. Reuben recalled that the whole family went to Philip to the circus in 1912. They went by team and wagon, and when they arrived the circus tent had blown down. They stayed overnight in the upstairs of the Marietta House, which was 0.5 mile north of where the Courthouse now stands. Reuben slept crossways in bed. John built his big house in 1930. Reuben bought a tractor in 1920. Roy left in 1921 and got married. Nelson had the cattle. Reuben did the farming from 1926 to 1938. He did custom work with his threshing machine and combine, which he bought in 1928. He bought cattle and sheep and after Nelson left to go to Oregon in 1939 Reuben ran both grain and cattle.
