Preface

John Painter and Frances A. Ireland were born in the 1820s. Other than that, we do not know much about them other than the fact that they had 12 children and have many descendants, who have distributed themselves to various parts of the United States.

Alfred Durley was born in 1857, died on 11 Jan 1891, in Antioch, IL. She married (2) Leonodos (Lee) Edwards on 23 Aug 1893, in Cowling, Wabash County, IL. Leonodos (Lee) Edwards was born on 6 Oct 1860, in Spartanburg County, SC, the son of Amanuel Carl (A.C.) Edwards and Nancy Mathis, died on 8 Feb 1945, in Hilland (Philip), Haakon County, SD.

[As told by Wilma Edwards Loga and Esther Ferguson Knutson]: Jennie's ancestors, who were Huguenots, emigrated to America from France, probably in the late 1700s or early 1880s. They settled in what is now Atlantic City, which they found to be unsuitable for farming, so they moved inland.

Jennie was the ninth of twelve children born to John Painter and Frances Ireland. At an unknown time some of them moved to Mount Carmel, Illinois. Jennie married Alfred Durley and they had one son, Amon, born in 1888. After Alfred died in 1891 Jennie moved to Cowling, Illinois, where she met and married Lee Edwards. They ran a general store and Jennie was a seamstress. Five of their six children were born in Illinois. They moved to South Dakota in 1907 where they homesteaded. Viola was born in a dugout on the homestead in 1911. Amon stayed in Illinois, although he and his wife Phoebe did live in South Dakota for a short time, after which they moved back to Illinois.

Lee Edwards may have worked for a time for the Pinkerton Detective Agency. Family lore indicates that he was very resourceful, and it is unknown how much of it is true. One story has him working for a time in Kansas where he was after mail robbers and murders. Once, he came across a husband beating his wife; he knocked down the husband, after which his wife hit him with a stick and told him not to interfere with family trouble. Evidence is good that he worked in Knoxville, which he thought was beautiful. One story has it that he went to Cowling, IL, from Knoxville, where he met his future wife. Another one holds that he first went to Cowling with cowpunchers from the west with a herd of wild horses.

He was a great storyteller. Lee would get an apple and peel around it with his knife while telling a story. (He was trying to get the peel off in one piece.) After he told a story he would take the crook of his cane and catch one of the children, making him or her scream.

In the late 30s (?) he and his family returned to Tennessee, where he lived for the rest of his life. He worked in the nuclear program at Oak Ridge during WWII. In the late 1940s he made neon signs. Raymond and members of his family were talented musically. He hired musicians and sang at his fiftieth wedding anniversary in 1966. Esther Ferguson Knutson remembers Lee Edwards singing along as her mother, Martha, played the piano. Martha played the piano on many occasions after only one hour of lessons. At the 2005 Edwards reunion Jack Edwards related that his father, John, and his uncles Robert and Frank, played many instruments. They won a contest and performed on the Ed Sullivan radio show (before TV). One of Raymond's brothers taught music in Wyoming. This musical talent has been carried down to many members of the present generations.

Reuben Francis Herrman was born on 6 Dec 1900, in Fosterburg, Madison County IL, the son of John G. Herrman and Maria Josephine Dingerson, died on 28 Jun 1974, in Philip, Haakon County, SD.

Viola was working in the telephone office in Deadwood in 1929 or 1930. She went to dinner with a friend; Potato Creek Johnny was there and ate with them, then paid for their meal. Potato Creek Johnny was famous for finding a 7.75-ounce gold nugget, one of the largest in the world, on his claim on Potato Creek in the northern Black Hills in 1929 (as told by Viola to her daughter Barbara in 1975).

Viola played the piano, mostly by ear. She learned notes by sitting next to her daughter Marilyn and playing along with her. She took organ lessons after her family left home and played at First Lutheran Church after moving to Philip.

Reuben was born at home, which was near Fosterburg, IL. When he was two years old his parents went to the world's fair in St. Louis and left Wesley and him behind with Mrs Ramus. The other children went to the fair. He remembered getting into the chicken house when he was 4-6 years old and getting covered with chicken lice.

On the trip to SD in 1907, the family went from Alton, IL to Chicago on CB&C and then west. Reuben remembered his mother telling him that some other folks were going to South Dakota and that their name was Edwards. Raymond Edwards had broken an arm when he had gotten between two cars. He remembered Leona Edwards singing. They stopped at Brookings to visit his Uncle Ben and Aunt Kate over the week-end.

They arrived in Philip on 14 October 1907 on the train. Wesley and Reuben walked up town from the train. There were a few buildings and wooden sidewalks. They saw their father (John) visiting with someone. He was surprised to see them because he was expecting them to arrive later in the day. They started out by team and wagon that John had borrowed and camped between the Grindstone Buttes that night. They went the rest of the way to the homestead the next day. The claim shack was 14' X 24'. Reuben remembered the roof leaking when it rained all day; pots and pans were everywhere. They moved the beds out from under the drips and stayed in bed all day.

Reuben recalled that the whole family went to Philip to the circus in 1912. They went by team and wagon, and when they arrived the circus tent had blown down. They stayed overnight in the upstairs of the Marietta House, which was 0.5 mile north of where the Courthouse now stands. Reuben slept crossways in bed.

John built his big house in 1930. Reuben bought a tractor in 1920. Roy left in 1921 and got married. Nelson had the cattle. Reuben did the farming from 1926 to 1938. He did custom work with his threshing machine and combine, which he bought in 1928. He bought cattle and sheep and after Nelson left to go to Oregon in 1939 Reuben ran both grain and cattle.
