He was probably there 2 to 3 years. Will lived with Grandma Dingerson before marrying Mrs Franklin, probably after 1939. He moved from Fosterburg to Mount Pleasant, MI, in 1952 to be close to her daughter (his step-daughter), Mrs Mark Linton, but they had a falling-out. He died in 1957 following an extended illness. Herrman 14 May 1890, in Fosterburg, Madison County IL. He was the son of Nicholas Johann Herrmann and Fenka Catherina Dieckmann. John G. Herrman was born 14 Sep 1864, in Dorchester, Macoupin County, IL, died 13 Dec 1945, in Deadwood, Lawrence County, SD.

The birth certificates of her older children had her name as 'Maria Josephine Herrman'. Later she signed her name as 'Mary'.

John owned property in Illinois. In the spring of 1906 he filed a claim in South Dakota, Homestead Claim Stanley County N.W. Section 6, Township 4N-19E. He left for South Dakota with Henry Burjes, Alf Woods and Ben Hermann. Axel Olson located the property in South Dakota for them and picked them up at the train in Pierre. In the fall of 1906 John loaded an immigration car at Brighton. Reuben remembered loading the last load. In October of 1907, Josephine, Nelson, Jo, Wesley and Reuben went to South Dakota. Edna and Roy stayed in Illinois, Edna with Aunt Emma Hunt and Roy with Grandma Caroline Dingson and attended school. They went to South Dakota the following year. Edna started teaching school in a tar paper claim shack in Ash Creek Township. The school was called Buck Academy, which was named by Mrs. Burjes. Edna taught school for several years on an 8th grade certificate until she was married. John and Josephine's marriage license reads that John was a laborer in a plough factory at the age of 25 or 26. Josephine was 23 years of age when they were married. Witnesses to the marriage were William Hermann and Emma Kamper. They were married by Charles Bremicker, minister of the Presbyterian Church. When John and Josephine were first married they lived in Alton, IL. where John did carpentry work. Edna was born when they were living in Alton. Grandma Herrmann thought it was terrible that her son lived in town so John and Josephine moved east of Grandma Dingson's, where they probably rented a house. Roy was born there and later they moved a quarter mile east of Grandma Herrmann's, Will's place, which was a log house. Nelson was born there. While living at Will's, John bought 65 acres and built a house. The house had closets and an attic. Jo, Wesley, and Reuben were born in the new house. John tore down the chicken house and took it to South Dakota. His first year in South Dakota John along with Charlie Price stayed at the Rood house on Ash Creek, in the same place that Dale Keyser lived later. Charlie did chores because the Roods were in Fort Pierre, where Mr Rood was Stanley County Treasurer. John built his claim shack that winter.

Reuben was born at home, which was near Fosterburg, IL. When he was two years old his parents went to the world's fair in St. Louis and left Wesley and him behind with Mrs Ramus. The other children went to the fair. He remembered getting into the chicken house when he was 4-6 years old and getting covered with chicken lice. On the trip to SD in 1907, the family went from Alton, IL to Chicago on CB&C and then west. Reuben remembered his mother telling him that some other folks were going to South Dakota and that their name was Edwards. Raymond Edwards had broken an arm when he had gotten between two cars. He remembered Leona Edwards singing. They stopped at Brookings to visit his Uncle Ben and Aunt Kate over the week-end. They arrived in Philip on 14 October 1907 on the train. Wesley and Reuben walked up town from the train. There were a few buildings and wooden sidewalks. They saw their father (John) visiting with someone. He was surprised to see them because he was expecting them to arrive later in the day. They started out by team and wagon that John had borrowed and camped between the Grindstone Buttes that night. They went the rest of the way to the homestead the next day. The claim shack was 14' X 24'. Reuben remembered the roof leaking when it rained all day; pots and pans were everywhere. They moved the beds out from under the drips and stayed in bed all day. Reuben recalled that the whole family went to Philip to the circus in 1912. They went by team and wagon, and when they arrived the circus tent had blown down. They stayed overnight in the upstairs of the Marietta House, which was 0.5 mile north of where the Courthouse now stands. Reuben slept crossways in bed. John built his big house in 1930. Reuben bought a tractor in 1920. Roy left in 1921 and got married. Nelson had the cattle. Reuben did the farming from 1926 to 1938.
