Ben was born and raised on the old Herrmann homestead in Fosterburg, Illinois. His father died when Ben was a boy. Ben and Katherine moved to Brookings, SD, in about 1907 because of Katherine's poor health. Ben got a job at the college in the agriculture department. He was sent to Eureka, SD, to do plot farming, where he planted 1/4-acre plots of different kinds of seeds, then sent the college reports on the production of each. From there they moved to Leola, SD, where Ben ran a large ranch for a man by the name of Nickerbacker. They lived there for a couple of years, then moved to Hilland where Ben purchased a farm in 1910. Ben and Katherine decided they didn't like the dry weather as he could never raise anything. Because of that they moved machinery, stock and furniture by train back to Brookings, SD, and farmed there until 1916, then moved back to Fosterburg. In 1926 Ben retired and he and Katherine moved to Alton. While living in Alton Ben was baliff in a courthouse in Edwardsville. Ben and Katherine later moved back to their farm until they sold it and then moved to Bunker Hill. Benjamin passed away at home of a cerebral hemmorage. He had been sick for 18 hours.

Hazel was born in the same neighborhood as Leroy, but they did not know each other until they were adults.They had aunts and uncles who were married to each other, so had common cousins. Hazel was 7 when her family moved to Kansas at the recommendation of the family doctor who said her mother, Anna, had consumption and would not survive the Illinois climate. When Hazel was 14, her family bought a new and better farm, and a few months later, her father, John Heiens, died of a heart attack. Anna had never written a check or helped with the business of the farm, but she learned fast with the mentoring of the banker, and they paid off the farm in a timely manner with all of the children helping, so the former owner could not foreclose. The farm was near Abilene, and Hazel hauled the milk from their farm to the creamery owned by the family of Dwight D. Eisenhower. Hazel attended St. Joseph School of Nursing (Kansas City) for a year, then returned home to care for family members with the Spanish Flu. She was asked by the family doctor to care for other families. She spent the rest of her life helping people with their health issues, and friends would call for her advice. She took a year of normal school to teach, and went to South Dakota to visit her Uncle and Aunt, who were neighbors of the Herrman family. She loved SD and stayed to teach, and met and married Roy. She never lost her love of South Dakota, the prairie and the people. The move to Nyssa was hard work, but she and Roy built a successful farm business as well as participating in church, neighborhood, Legion and Grange activities as well as developing long life friendships. She and Roy were very interested in politics and world affairs, and read voraciously. Hazel voted in the first Presidential election that women were allowed to vote-19th Amendment! She and Roy were encouraging and supportive of the children in school and activities, and goals in their lives. She was able to live on the Nyssa farm until her death.

Roy was born in Illinois and moved to be with his family who had homesteaded in the Hilland SD area when he was in eighth grade, since he and sister Edna had stayed behind to finish school. Roy farmed with his family near Hilland SD. He entered the Army in WWI, where he trained other soldiers. He was hospitalized with a ruptured appendix which resulted in infection, so he was not able to go overseas. He was treated with sulfa since penicillin had not been developed. He was discharged on 24 March 1918. He returned to farming with his family after the war, met and married Hazel, who was visiting her uncle and aunt and began teaching school near Hilland. When Roy was was 32 (Keith was a year old), his leg was severely injured in a thrashing accident. He spent months in the Mayo Clinic in Rochester MN and his leg was able to be saved. He lived the rest of his life (to 79) wearing a brace and shoe that accommodated for the 3” shortened leg. All of the children remember him never complaining, and he worked long and heavy jobs as a farmer and in the sugar factory in Nyssa. The family moved to Nyssa, OR, in 1939, where land was becoming available for farming with water from the Owyhee Irrigation Project, because of the hard times caused by drought in South Dakota and the depression. Roy was a farmer/dairyman for his life. He loved working with milk cows, and developed an award-winning herd of Holstein milk cows in Oregon. He kept the radio on during the milking time twice a day so he had contented cows! He was a board member of the Payette Creamery for many years . He never tired of telling how the Owyhee Dam made the high desert grow green and always had water available for crops and orchards. They planted a “Family Orchard” of 13 peach trees, 7 apricot trees, at least 5 cherry trees, every kind of plums and so about 100 jars of canned fruits and vegetables were available to feed the family. He and Hazel were very interested in politics and world affairs and made sure they voted. He lived on the Nyssa farm until his death in 1972, six months after he and Hazel celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary.

Stories told by Eunice: Mother bought a new tricycle for Ralph and hid it in the barn loft until Christmas. Roy found it and a friend rode the tricycle until Christmas. When Mother went to give it to Ralph for Christmas it was half worn out. I came home from school one day early and thought no one was at home. I started to undress in the bedroom and heard a growl and a short time later I heard another noise. I went and got the gun and stuck it under the bed and a voice said HA-HA! . . . . It's me, Roy!! Ralph and Roy went hunting one day and brought back a skunk. They remembered that skunk oil was supposed to be organically therapeutic and good boot oil. The trick was to keep the meat separate from the fat. Anyway they left their boots outside after oiling them. On Saturday night the smell wasn't so bad, so they went to town to see a movie. It got hot in the movie theatre and the boots started to smell. Everyone in the movie theatre left in panic.
