Descendants of Nicholas Johann Herrmann

1. Nicholas Johann Herrmann was born on 11 Apr 1830, in Suderheistedt, Holstein, the son of Boje Jacob Herrmann? and Glashe Thomsen?, died on 11 Mar 1888, in Fosterburg, Madison County, IL. He married Fenka Catherina Dieckmann on 1 Apr 1856, in Fosterburg, Madison County, IL. Fenka Catherina Dieckmann was born on 16 Nov 1834, in Essen or Emden (Hanover?), Germany, died on 11 May 1907, in Fosterburg, Madison County, IL.

Nicholas was naturalized on on 24 oct 1860 under the name 'Claus John Herrmann in Madison County, IL. Nicholas and Frances (Fenka) filed for their marriage license on 27 Mar 1856 at the Madison County court house. Fenka and Nicholas lived in Dorchester, Illinois after they were married and later moved to a farm near Fosterburg, IL (the house they lived in was still standing and occupied as of 1969). According to family lore, Nicholas may have stayed in Bettendorf, Iowa to visit relatives before he was married and moved to Illinois. Nicholas was the first person to be embalmed in Alton, IL. The funeral cost $10.00.

Fenka (or Fenke) Catherina Dickman(n) or Dieckmann was commonly known as Frances. She died at age of 72 due to fecal obstruction. According to family lore Fenka arrived alone in New Orleans at about 19 years of age (about 1853). However, search of the volumes of "Germans to American - List of Passengers arriving in U. S. Ports" for the years 1850-1860 disclosed only one New Orleans entry for Dickmann and none for other versions of the name. The family of Wilhelm Dickmann (age 53) arrived on 24 Jun 1853 from Bremen aboard the Ernestine, bound for St. Louis. The group included Fenka (18), together with Telke (45), Catharina (16), Wilhelm (15), Leonard (9), Eberhard (6), and Wilbrand (24). Quite possibly family lore is incorrect in the belief that Fenka traveled alone.

3. John G. Herrman (Nicholas Johann[1]) was born on 14 Sep 1864, in Dorchester, Macoupin County, IL, died on 13 Dec 1945, in Deadwood, Lawrence County, SD. He married Maria Josephine Dingerson on 14 May 1890, in Fosterburg, Madison County IL. Maria Josephine Dingerson was born on 2 Jun 1867, in Staunton, IL, the daughter of Simon August Dingerson and Wilhemina Caroline Nagel, died in Oct 1927, in Hilland (Philip), Haakon County, SD.

John owned property in Illinois. In the spring of 1906 he filed a claim in South Dakota, Homestead Claim Stanley County N.W. Section 6, Township 4N-19E. He left for South Dakota with Henry Burjes, Alf Woods and Ben Hermann. Axel Olson located the property in South Dakota for them and picked them up at the train in Pierre. In the fall of 1906 John loaded an immigration car at Brighton. Reuben remembered loading the last load, which included lumber from a chicken house his father had torn down. In October of 1907, Josephine, Nelson, Jo, Wesley and Reuben went to South Dakota. Edna and Roy stayed in Illinois, Edna lived with Aunt Emma Hunt and Roy lived with Grandma Caroline Dingerson and attended school. They went to South Dakota the following year. Edna started teaching school in a tar paper claim shack in Ash Creek Township. The school was called Buck Academy, which was named by Mrs. Burjes. Edna taught school for several years on an 8th grade certificate until she was married. John and Mary's marriage license reads that John was a laborer in a plough factory at the age of 25 or 26. Mary was 23 years of age when they were married. Witnesses to the marriage were William Hermann and Emma Kamper. They where married by Charles Bremicker, minister of the Presbyterian Church.

When John and Mary were first married they lived in Alton, IL. where John did carpentry work. Edna was born when they were living in Alton. Grandma Herrmann thought it was terrible that her son lived in town so John and Mary moved east of Grandma Dingerson's, where they probably rented a house. Roy was born there and later they moved a quarter mile east of Grandma Herrmann's, Will's place, which was a log house. Nelson was born there. While living at Will's, John bought 65 acres and built a house. The house had closets and an attic. Jo, Wesley, and Reuben were born in the new house. He probably served on the school and townhip boards while living there.

His first year in South Dakota John along with Charlie Price stayed at the Rood house on Ash Creek, in the same place that Dale Keyser lived later. Charlie did chores because the Roods were in Fort Pierre, where Mr Rood was Stanley County Treasurer. John built his claim shack, which was 14 X 14 feet, that winter. Before Mary and the family arrived it was enlarged to 14 X 20 feet. John took a cow and horse to South Dakota, The horse didn't live through the first winter. In 1912 or 1913 John and Roy with other men in the area went to Wild Rose, North Dakota, to work on a threshing crew. They took a team and running gears for a wagon. Their grub box was on the running gears. They forgot their frying pan, which Mary noticed, so she asked Reuben to take it to the men on horseback. She told Reuben that he should instruct his father to cure the pan by frying potato skins in it. Reuben returned in the dark, arriving at about eleven o'clock. Probably while they were gone Mary sold a mule for $160, which was paid in twenty dollars bills.

John was an intellectual, reading prose and poetry. He was a justice of the peace and performed the marriage ceremony for Henry and Anna Burjes at Henry's request. The neighbors gathered at the Green's (about one-half mile south) for a charivari. In 1911-14 chuch and Sunday school were held at the Bridges Creek school, where John was Sunday school superintendent. The Hilland church was built in 1920. The family milked cows and took the cream to the Hilland store.

The birth certificates of her older children had her name as 'Maria Josephine Herrman'. Later she signed her name as 'Mary'.

Recollections of Mary's children, Josephine and Wesley: Mother was a representative of Sears and delivered catalogs to every home in a wide area with a spring wagon. It must have been in the summer of 1913. Wesley doesn't remember how the catalogs got there from Philip, but he remembers going along with the deliveries. Sears gave her credit for her work, with which she bought merchandise. It was another way she helped make a living in early-day hard times.

Ben was born and raised on the old Herrmann homestead in Fosterburg, Illinois. His father died when Ben was a boy. Ben and Katherine moved to Brookings, SD, in about 1907 because of Katherine's poor health. Ben got a job at the college in the agriculture department. He was sent to Eureka, SD, to do plot farming, where he planted 1/4-acre plots of different kinds of seeds, then sent the college reports on the production of each. From there they moved to Leola, SD, where Ben ran a large ranch for a man by the name of Nickerbacker. They lived there for a couple of years, then moved to Hilland where Ben purchased a farm in 1910. Ben and Katherine decided they didn't like the dry weather as he could never raise anything. Because of that they moved machinery, stock and furniture by train back to Brookings, SD, and farmed there until 1916, then moved back to Fosterburg. In 1926 Ben retired and he and Katherine moved to Alton. While living in Alton Ben was baliff in a courthouse in Edwardsville. He married Hazel Ethel Heiens on 29 Aug 1921, in Abilene, KS. Hazel Ethel Heiens was born on 22 Feb 1897, in Fosterburg, Madison County, IL, the daughter of Johann Frederick Heiens and Geska Anna Burjes, died on 25 Jan 1980, in Portland, OR (buried at Nyssa, OR).

Roy was born in Illinois and moved to be with his family who had homesteaded in the Hilland SD area when he was in eighth grade, since he and sister Edna had stayed behind to finish school. Roy farmed with his family near Hilland SD. He entered the Army in WWI, where he trained other soldiers. He was hospitalized with a ruptured appendix which resulted in infection, so he was not able to go overseas. He was treated with sulfa since penicillin had not been developed. He was discharged on 24 March 1918. He returned to farming with his family after the war, met and married Hazel, who was visiting her uncle and aunt and began teaching school near Hilland. When Roy was was 32 (Keith was a year old), his leg was severely injured in a thrashing accident. He spent months in the Mayo Clinic in Rochester MN and his leg was able to be saved. He lived the rest of his life (to 79) wearing a brace and shoe that accommodated for the 3” shortened leg. All of the children remember him never complaining, and he worked long and heavy jobs as a farmer and in the sugar factory in Nyssa. The family moved to Nyssa, OR, in 1939, where land was becoming available for farming with water from the Owyhee Irrigation Project, because of the hard times caused by drought in South Dakota and the depression. Roy was a farmer/dairyman for his life. He loved working with milk cows, and developed an award-winning herd of Holstein milk cows in Oregon. He kept the radio on during the milking time twice a day so he had contented cows! He was a board member of the Payette Creamery for many years . He never tired of telling how the Owyhee Dam made the high desert grow green and always had water available for crops and orchards. They planted a “Family Orchard” of 13 peach trees, 7 apricot trees, at least 5 cherry trees, every kind of plums and so about 100 jars of canned fruits and vegetables were available to feed the family. He and Hazel were very interested in politics and world affairs and made sure they voted. He lived on the Nyssa farm until his death in 1972, six months after he and Hazel celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary.

Hazel was born in the same neighborhood as Leroy, but they did not know each other until they were adults.They had aunts and uncles who were married to each other, so had common cousins. Hazel was 7 when her family moved to Kansas at the recommendation of the family doctor who said her mother, Anna, had consumption and would not survive the Illinois climate. When Hazel was 14, her family bought a new and better farm, and a few months later, her father, John Heiens, died of a heart attack.

Anna had never written a check or helped with the business of the farm, but she learned fast with the mentoring of the banker, and they paid off the farm in a timely manner with all of the children helping, so the former owner could not foreclose. The farm was near Abilene, and Hazel hauled the milk from their farm to the creamery owned by the family of Dwight D. Eisenhower. Hazel attended St. Joseph School of Nursing (Kansas City) for a year, then returned home to care for family members with the Spanish Flu. She was asked by the family doctor to care for other families. She spent the rest of her life helping people with their health issues, and friends would call for her advice. She took a year of normal school to teach, and went to South Dakota to visit her Uncle and Aunt, who were neighbors of the Herrman family. She loved SD and stayed to teach, and met and married Roy. She never lost her love of South Dakota, the prairie and the people. The move to Nyssa was hard work, but she and Roy built a successful farm business as well as participating in church, neighborhood, Legion and Grange activities as well as developing long life friendships. She and Roy were very interested in politics and world affairs, and read voraciously. Hazel voted in the first Presidential election that women were allowed to vote-19th Amendment! She and Roy were encouraging and supportive of the children in school and activities, and goals in their lives. She was able to live on the Nyssa farm until her death.

He married Viola Edwards on 3 Jun 1936, in Torrington, WY. Viola Edwards was born on 31 May 1911, in Hartley, SD, the daughter of Leonodos (Lee) Edwards and Louisa (Jennie) Jane Painter, died on 12 Jun 2006, in Philip, Haakon County, SD.

Reuben was born at home, which was near Fosterburg, IL. When he was two years old his parents went to the world's fair in St. Louis and left Wesley and him behind with Mrs Ramus. The other children went to the fair. He remembered getting into the chicken house when he was 4-6 years old and getting covered with chicken lice.

On the trip to SD in 1907, the family went from Alton, IL to Chicago on CB&C and then west. Reuben remembered his mother telling him that some other folks were going to South Dakota and that their name was Edwards. Raymond Edwards had broken an arm when he had gotten between two cars. He remembered Leona Edwards singing. They stopped at Brookings to visit his Uncle Ben and Aunt Kate over the week-end.

They arrived in Philip on 14 October 1907 on the train. Wesley and Reuben walked up town from the train. There were a few buildings and wooden sidewalks. They saw their father (John) visiting with someone. He was surprised to see them because he was expecting them to arrive later in the day. They started out by team and wagon that John had borrowed and camped between the Grindstone Buttes that night. They went the rest of the way to the homestead the next day. The claim shack was 14' X 24'. Reuben remembered the roof leaking when it rained all day; pots and pans were everywhere. They moved the beds out from under the drips and stayed in bed all day.

Reuben recalled that the whole family went to Philip to the circus in 1912. They went by team and wagon, and when they arrived the circus tent had blown down. They stayed overnight in the upstairs of the Marietta House, which was 0.5 mile north of where the Courthouse now stands. Reuben slept crossways in bed.

John built his big house in 1930. Reuben bought a tractor in 1920. Roy left in 1921 and got married. Nelson had the cattle. Reuben did the farming from 1926 to 1938. He did custom work with his threshing machine and combine, which he bought in 1928. He bought cattle and sheep and after Nelson left to go to Oregon in 1939 Reuben ran both grain and cattle.

Viola was working in the telephone office in Deadwood in 1929 or 1930. She went to dinner with a friend; Potato Creek Johnny was there and ate with them, then paid for their meal. Potato Creek Johnny was famous for finding a 7.75-ounce gold nugget, one of the largest in the world, on his claim on Potato Creek in the northern Black Hills in 1929 (as told by Viola to her daughter Barbara in 1975).

Viola played the piano, mostly by ear. She learned notes by sitting next to her daughter Marilyn and playing along with her. She took organ lessons after her family left home and played at First Lutheran Church after moving to Philip.
